

NORTHWESTERN WISCONSIN TOUR

Tuesday, July 22, 2008

8:30 to 5:30

$39 per person includes lunch

Many Finnish immigrants left their mark on the land as they settled along the south shore of Lake Superior in northwestern Wisconsin at the turn of the 20th century. View the picturesque Amnicon Falls and the Brule River as you travel back in time to the communities of Brule, Maple and Oulu. Enjoy a delicious lunch at an Iron River resort, and watch glass blowing and tour the studio and gift shop at Oulu Glass Works. End the day with a stop at the historic Jacob (Tapola) Davidson windmill.
